FUELING THE MIDWEST

In Ohio, we rely on the energy of thousands of workers to keep our refineries running safely and reliably. Our people contribute their hard work and technical knowledge to our operations, helping us produce the fuels that keep the Midwest moving, and drive our local economies.

Our local fuel production powers more than cars, trucks and jets. We support community organizations and initiatives, contribute to the local economy and ensure our people have the skills, leadership and technology to flourish in meaningful careers.

Our Ohio refineries are located in Lima and Toledo. Over the next five years, we plan to invest US $1.5 billion to ensure these facilities continue to operate safely and reliably.

Our Lima Refinery produces low-sulphur gasoline, gasoline blend stocks, ultra-low sulphur diesel, jet fuel, petrochemical feedstock and other byproducts. Lima Refinery's crude oil throughput capacity is 175,000 bbls/d, depending on the type of crude being processed, and produces low sulfur gasoline, gasoline blend stocks, ultra-low sulfur diesel, jet fuel, petrochemical feedstock and other byproducts. A crude oil flexibility project completed in 2019 has increased heavy oil processing capacity at the refinery to 40,000 bbls/d. This provides flexibility to switch between light and heavy crude oil feedstock, which helps increase Cenovus's ability to respond more quickly to market conditions.

Refined products are transported via pipelines and rail cars to primary markets in Ohio, Illinois, Indiana, Pennsylvania and southern Michigan.
